"Tried, Tested and Triumphant" by Dr. David Jeremiah

Led by: Gerald Hyde

Family Room

When someone we know is going through a time of suffering and trial, a reference to Job is often mentioned in some context. We feel comfortable referencing Job as the ultimate example, but do we really know his story? Do we really understand the circumstances of his suffering? Job is a complex story of one man's journey from blessing to despair, from affluence to poverty, and respect to ridicule. This biblical story is told in great depth and detail—demanding an intensive study to gain a full understanding of its truth. As you study this important work of scripture, you will discover the real story of Job is not in the great suffering he withstood, it is in his godly response to those very circumstances that the heart of this story lies.

Study for college/young adults
